

Step-by-Step Submission Guide
International Inter and Transdisciplinarity Conference 2027

1. Title — Enter a clear, concise title.

2. Authors — Add all authors with full name, email, and affiliation (institution + country). Indicate the corresponding/presenting author (speaker).

4. Contribution Type

Select the format that best fits your proposal:

Format	Mode	Duration / Length	Word Limit
Session	In person	60 min	Up to 1,000 words
Presentation	In person	10 min	500 words max
Poster or Installation	Hybrid	Displayed throughout	500 words max
Short Video	Online	1–7 min	500 words max
Workshop	In person	60–90 min	Up to 1,200 words
Training	In person	60–90 min	Up to 1,200 words
Open Format	In person	Variable	Contact office
Networking Event	In person	Variable	500 words max

If proposing an Installation or Open Format, contact itd27@uevora.pt beforehand to confirm feasibility.

5. Comments (Optional)

6. Attachments

Here you can upload your abstract file.

7. Track Selection

Select one primary track:

Track 1 — Enhancing the theoretical and empirical foundations of ITD

Track 2 — Strengthening the capability for ITD

Track 3 — Broadening and deepening education and training in ITD

Track 4 — Bridging knowledge and networks for transformative change

International Inter- and Transdisciplinarity (ITD) Conference

7.1. Keywords

Select one or more keywords from your chosen track. Cross-cutting themes across all tracks: trade-offs/incentives/barriers, AI, leadership, more-than-human perspectives, Global South collaborations. If you need to add keywords, choose other.

Important Notes

The programme committee may reassign contributions to different formats or tracks for a balanced programme.

Submissions are evaluated on quality, relevance, thematic fit, and diversity criteria.

For Workshops/Trainings, the office welcomes collaborative development — reach out at itd27@uevora.pt.